

Miscellaneous provisions relating to disqualification by court order

845. (1) Where it is intended to make an application under section 842 in respect of any person, the applicant shall give not less than 10 days' notice of his or her intention to that person.

(2) A disqualification order may be made on grounds that are or include matters other than criminal convictions notwithstanding that the person who is the subject of the order may be made criminally liable in respect of those matters.

(3) On an application for a disqualification order, the court may as an alternative, if it considers that disqualification is not justified, make a declaration under section 819.
