

Court may make order after considering inspectors' report

760. (1) After considering a report made under section 758, the court may make such order as it thinks fit.

(2) An order under subsection (1) may include—

(a) an order of the court's own motion for the winding up of a body corporate; or

(b) an order for remedying any disability suffered by any person whose interests were adversely affected by the conduct of the affairs of the company that is the subject of the report, provided that in making such an order the court shall have regard to the interests of any other person who may be adversely affected by the order.
