

Treatment of persons as not accountable. VATA s. 8(6)

7.— An accountable person (applies) may, in accordance with regulations, be treated for the purposes of this Act as a person who is not an accountable person if the Revenue Commissioners are satisfied that, in the absence of an election under section 6 (1), the person would not be an accountable person.