

Saving for privileged communications in context of requirements under section 724

885. Where proceedings are brought under this Act against any person, nothing in section 447 or 724 shall be taken to require any person who has acted as solicitor for the company to disclose any privileged communication made to him or her in that capacity.